

Khuselo Mputo is the corporate wine sommelier at Zuri Hotels & Resorts

The Zuri Hotels & Resorts welcomes onboard Khuselo Mputo, the first wine sommelier for all their properties across India. A South African national, Khuselo comes with over a decade's experience and learning in the Food & Beverage industry. Apart from his exceptional skills in tasting, he has a deep understanding of budget preferences, thereby making him the perfect wine connoisseur for a young and chic brand like Zuri. Having worked at some of the best restaurants in London, his journey into wine began at the Sofitel St James' Brasserie Roux where he was offered the job of sommelier. After heading Delaire Graff Restaurant in South Africa as the Head Sommelier, Khuselo has made his way to India to help the Zuri customer choose the right wine for the right occasion with the right kind of dish.

To add to his past achievements and experiences, he has been on the tasting panel for South Africa's best Wine magazines, Associate judge for Diners Club Winemaker competition 2008, Associate judge for Old Mutual Trophy Show 2008 and the lead judge for John Platter Wine Guide 2010 Edition.

