

PUBLICATION	: The Telegraph	DATE	: 23.09.2010
EDITION	: Kolkata	PAGE	: 07

ROOM FOR MORE: Zuri Group Global is in talks with two hotel groups in Calcutta to start operations under the management contract model. "The fastest way to grow is through the management contract route," managing director Ahishek Kamani (left) said in Calcutta on Tuesday, while announcing the group's first venture in Sikkim under this model. The group is looking at hotels near the Rajarhat and EM Bypass, Priti Chand, assistant vice-president (public relations and communication), said. It, however, has no plans to acquire land in the city. Last fiscal, the group had a turnover of Rs 100 crore from its hotels in India and Rs 250 crore, internationally. It targets a 30 per cent growth this year. Joint managing director Bobby Kamani (right) was also present. Picture by Kishor Roy Chowdhury