SAKE-PAN ASIAN RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

Sake, the Oriental eatery and bar at The Zuri Whitefield, Bengaluru, promises an unconventional Pan-Asian experience. Perched on the rooftop of the hotel with a breathtaking view of the city, this contemporarily designed eatery seats over 70 and serves up exotic Japanese, Thai and Chinese delicacies. Make a beeline to the Japanese teppanyaki station to view the acrobatics of the chef as he tosses meats, eggs, vegetables, salt and pepper to the applause of the crowd. The well-stocked Cigar Lounge boasts of the best Cubans money can buy, while the attentive staff dish out a scrumptious spread of exotic dishes such as soft shell crab roll and cucumber maki with gratifying entrees like wok-flashed mushrooms with Chinese wine and sesame oil, lobster money bags with coriander chilli dip and delectable desserts like chocolate wontons with vanilla cream and sake-infused tropical fruit shots from the main lounge bar. An additional sushi bar rounds up the trip to the east with traditional Asian fare. Sake is a must to bring in your anniversary toggled in kimonos and armed with chopsticks. The Zuri Whitefield, Bengaluru, ITPL Rd., Whitefield; 91-80/6665-7272; thezurihotels.com; meal for two Rs 3,000.
